

Minister Raitt announces winners of "It's Your Job!" video contest

Brampton, Ont., June 14, 2013 – The Honourable Lisa Raitt, Canada's labour minister, announced the winners of a national social media video contest entitled "It's Your Job" on workplace safety for young workers. The winner of the Fan Favourite category for the ages of 18-24, Jackson Ho from Mississauga, met with the minister.

"These young filmmakers can be proud of the excellent films they created, and more importantly, of their contribution to informing other young people about their rights to safety in the workplace," Raitt told students gathered from the North American Trade School in Brampton. "Young workers are the future of our economy, and we are committed to building and sustaining healthy and safe workplaces."

The national winners are:

18 to 24-Year Old

1. "Changement de vie" by Jonathan Phoenix-Boulard and Rémi D. Vincent, St. Charles-Borromée, Quebec.
2. "Les proches" by Anthony Fréchette and Aleck Giguère, Drummondville, Quebec.
3. "La santé auditive" by Sophie Lamontagne, Montreal, Quebec.

Fan Favourite: "La sécurité avant tout" by Jackson Ho and Jessica Ruiz, Mississauga, Ontario.

Secondary School

1. "Workplace Safety" by Christian Arcuri, Vanessa De Maria, Ruby Rose Komisar and Shandra Romanoff; Robert F. Hall Catholic Secondary School, Caledon, Ontario.
2. "Chris" by Linnea Ritland; Lord Byng Secondary School, Vancouver, British Columbia.

3. “Safety” by Tashika Griffiths and Derek Reid-Wilkinson; Pine Ridge Secondary School, Pickering, Ontario.
